PART II — RULES 12b-25(b) AND (c)

If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate)

- (a) The reasons described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense;
- (b) The subject annual report, semi-annual report, transition report on Form 10-K, Form 20-F, Form 11-K, Form N-CEN or Form N-CSR, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject quarterly report or transition report on Form 10-Q or subject distribution report on Form 10-D, or portion thereof will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and
- (c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached, if applicable.

PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-CEN, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Edgio, Inc. (the "Company" or "Edgio") is unable, without unreasonable effort or expense, to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended June 30, 2023 (the "Form 10-Q") by the August 9, 2023 filing date applicable to an accelerated filer for the reasons discussed in this Form

As previously disclosed, on March 8, 2023, management and the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors (the “Audit Committee”) of Edgio determined that the Company’s previously issued financial statements in its Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020, as well as the previously filed Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarterly periods ended March 31, 2022 and 2021, June 30, 2022 and 2021 and September 30, 2022 and 2021 (collectively, the “Prior Period Financial Statements”), should be restated and no longer be relied upon due to an error in accounting for sales of Edgio’s Open Edge solution. The Company restated the Prior Period Financial Statements (collectively, the “Restated Prior Period Financial Statements”) in its Annual Report on Form 10-K filed on June 29, 2023 (the “Form 10-K”).

The Company is working diligently to complete and file the Form 10-Q as soon as practicable. However, given the time and focus that was dedicated to the Company’s review and restatement of the Prior Period Financial Statements and filing of the Form 10-K, the Company is necessarily delayed in its reporting and review process for the quarter ended June 30, 2023. As a result, the Company does not expect to complete the preparation and filing of the Form 10-Q on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date.

If answer is no, identify report(s).  Yes  No

The Company expects that the result of operations for the quarter ended June 30, 2023 to be included in the Form 10-Q will reflect significant changes from the quarter ended June 30, 2022. These changes are expected to include, among others, an increase in revenue of approximately 50%, subject to adjustment resulting from completion of the quarterly reporting and review process.

Cautionary Note on Forward-Looking Statements

This Form 12b-25 includes “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. All statements, other than statements of historical fact, included in this Form 12b-25 are forward-looking statements, including statements regarding the Company’s expectation regarding the timing of the filing with the SEC of the Form 10-Q and the Company’s expectation with respect to the expected preliminary revenues and other estimated results of operations for the affected periods discussed in this Form 12b-25. Such forward looking statements may be identified by, among other things, the use of forward-looking terminology such as “believe,” “expect,” “may,” “could,” “would,” “plan,” “intend,” “estimate,” “predict,” “potential,” “continue,” “should” or “anticipate” or the negative thereof or other variations thereon or comparable terminology.

Forward-looking statements are based on beliefs and assumptions by management and the Board of Directors of the Company (the “Board”), and on information currently available to the Board and management. A number of important factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statement. Potential consequences of the matters discussed in this Form 12b-25 include, but are not limited to: the risk that additional information may arise related to the Restated Prior Period Financial Statements; the risk that the Company may determine to include additional adjustments to the Restated Prior Period Financial Statements, the financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2022, and the financial statements for the three months ended March 31, 2023 and June 30, 2023, respectively; the risk that the completion and filing of the Company’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q will take longer than expected and will not be completed by the extension period provided by Rule 12b-25 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended; the possibility that The Nasdaq Stock Market may delist the Company’s securities; the possibility that the Company will not be able to become current in its filings with the SEC; the risk of investigations or actions by governmental authorities or regulators and the consequences thereof, including the imposition of civil or criminal penalties; and the risk that the Company may become subject to stockholder lawsuits or claims. It is very difficult to predict the effect of known factors, and the Company cannot anticipate all factors that could affect actual results that may be important to an investor. All forward-looking information should be evaluated in the context of these risks, uncertainties and other factors, including those factors disclosed under “Risk Factors” in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC on June 29, 2023 and the Company’s subsequent reports filed with the SEC.

All forward-looking statements in this Form 12b-25 are based on information available to the Company as of the date hereof. The Company undertakes no obligation to revise or publicly release the results of any revision to these forward-looking statements, except as required by law. Given these risks and uncertainties, readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements.
